TITLE III--GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 101. Whenever in this Act, an amount is specified within an appropriation for particular purposes or objects of expenditure, such amount, unless otherwise specified, shall be considered as the maximum amount that may be expended for said purpose or object rather than an amount set apart exclusively therefor.

SEC. 102. Appropriations in this Act shall be available for expenses of travel and for the payment of dues of organizations concerned with the work of the District of Columbia government, when authorized by the Mayor, or, in the case of the Council of the District of Columbia funds may be expended with the authorization of the Chairman of the Council.

SEC. 103. There are appropriated from the applicable funds of the District of Columbia such sums as may be necessary for making refunds and for the payment of legal settlements or judgments that have been entered against the District of Columbia government.

SEC. 104. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly provided herein.

SEC. 105. (a) None of the funds provided under this Act to the agencies funded by this Act, both Federal and District government agencies, that remain available for obligation or expenditure in fiscal year 2006, or provided from any accounts in the Treasury of the United States derived by the collection of fees available to the agencies funded by this Act, shall be available for obligation or expenditures for an agency through a reprogramming of funds which augments any existing program, project, or responsibility center through a reprogramming of funds in excess of $5,000,000 or 10%, whichever is less, unless the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate are notified in writing 15 days in advance of the reprogramming.

(b) None of the local funds contained in this Act may be available for obligation or expenditure for an agency through a transfer of any local funds in excess of $5,000,000 from one appropriation heading to another unless the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate are notified in writing 15 days in advance of the transfer, except that in no event may the amount of any funds transferred exceed 4% of the local funds in the appropriations.

SEC. 106. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the provisions of the District of Columbia Government Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act of 1978, effective March 3, 1979 (D.C. Law 2-139; D.C. Official Code, sec. 1-601.01 et seq.), enacted pursuant to section 422(3) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act (D.C. Official Code, sec. 1-204.22(3)), shall apply with respect to the compensation of District of Columbia employees. For pay purposes, employees of the District of Columbia government shall not be subject to the provisions of title 5, United States Code.

SEC. 107. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Mayor, in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia may accept, obligate, and expend Federal, private, and other grants received by the District government that are not reflected in the amounts appropriated in this Act.

(b)(1) No such Federal, private, or other grant may be accepted, obligated, or expended pursuant to subsection (a) until:

(A) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia submits to the Council a report setting forth detailed information regarding such grant; and

(B) The Council has reviewed and approved the acceptance, obligation, and expenditure of such grant.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1)(B), the Council shall be deemed to have reviewed and approved the acceptance, obligation, and expenditure of a grant if:

(A) No written notice of disapproval is filed with the Secretary to the Council within 14 calendar days of the receipt of the report from the Chief Financial Officer under paragraph (1)(A); or

(B) If such a notice of disapproval is filed within such deadline, the Council does not by resolution disapprove the acceptance, obligation, or expenditure of the grant within 30 calendar days of the initial receipt of the report from the Chief Financial Officer under paragraph (1)(A).

(c) No amount may be obligated or expended from the general fund or other funds of the District of Columbia government in anticipation of the approval or receipt of a grant under subsection (b)(2) or in anticipation of the approval or receipt of a Federal, private, or other grant not subject to such subsection.

(d) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia may adjust the budget for Federal, private, and other grants received by the District government reflected in the amounts appropriated in this Act, or approved and received under subsection (b)(2) to reflect a change in the actual amount of the grant.

(e) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall prepare a quarterly report setting forth detailed information regarding all Federal, private, and other grants subject to this section. Each such report shall be submitted to the Council of the District of Columbia and to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate not later than 15 days after the end of the quarter covered by the report.

SEC. 108. None of the funds contained in this Act may be used for purposes of the annual independent audit of the District of Columbia government for fiscal year 2006 unless:

(1) The audit is conducted by the Inspector General of the District of Columbia, in coordination with the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia, pursuant to section 208(a)(4) of the District of Columbia Procurement Practices Act of 1985, effective February 21, 1986 (D.C. Law 6-85; D.C. Official Code, sec. 2-302.08(a)(a)); and

(2) The audit includes as a basic financial statement a comparison of audited actual year-end results with the revenues submitted in the budget document for such year and the appropriations enacted into law for such year using the format, terminology, and classifications contained in the law making the appropriations for the year and its legislative history.

SEC. 109. (a) No later than 30 calendar days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress, the Mayor, and the Council of the District of Columbia a revised appropriated funds operating budget in the format of the budget that the District of Columbia government submitted pursuant to section 442 of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act (D.C. Official Code, sec. 1-204.42), for all agencies of the District of Columbia government for fiscal year 2006 that is in the total amount of the approved appropriation and that realigns all budgeted data for personal services and other-than-personal-services, respectively, with anticipated actual expenditures.

(b) This section shall apply only to an agency where the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia certifies that a reallocation is required to address unanticipated changes in program requirements.

SEC. 110. Notwithstanding any other law, in fiscal year 2006 and in each subsequent fiscal year, the District of Columbia Courts shall transfer to the general treasury of the District of Columbia all fines levied and collected by the Courts under section 10(b)(1) and (2) of the District of Columbia Traffic Act, 1925, approved March 3, 1925 (43 Stat. 1124; D.C. Official Code, sec. 50-2201.05(b)(1) and (2)). The transferred funds are hereby made available and shall remain available until expended and shall be used by the Office for the Attorney General for the District of Columbia for enforcement and prosecution of District traffic alcohol laws in accordance with section 10(b)(3) of the District of Columbia Traffic Act (D.C. Official Code, sec. 50-2201.05(b)(3)).

SEC. 111. None of the funds contained in this Act, or in appropriations acts for subsequent fiscal years, may be made available to pay:

(1) The fees of an attorney who represents a party in an action or an attorney who defends any action, including an administrative proceeding, brought against the District of Columbia Public Schools under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, approved February 14, 2003 (Pub. L. No. 108-6; 20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq.) ("IDEA") in excess of $4,000 for that action; which for the purposes of this paragraph, the term "action" means both an administrative proceeding under IDEA and any ensuing or related proceedings before a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) The fees of an attorney or firm whom the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia determines to have a pecuniary interest, either through an attorney, officer, or employee of the firm, in any special education diagnostic services, schools, or other special education service providers.

SEC. 112. Notwithstanding 20 U.S.C. 1415, 42 U.S.C. 1983, and 1988, 29 U.S.C. 794a, or any other law, none of the funds appropriated under this Act, or in appropriations Acts for subsequent fiscal years, may be made available to pay attorneys' fees accrued prior to the effective date of this Act that exceeds a cap imposed on attorneys' fees by prior appropriations Acts that were in effect during the fiscal year when the work was performed or when payment was requested for work previously performed in an action or proceeding brought against the District of Columbia Public Schools under IDEA.

ENROLLED ORIGINAL

SEC. 113. The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall require attorneys in special education cases brought under IDEA in the District of Columbia to certify in writing that the attorney or representative rendered any and all services for which they receive awards, including those received under a settlement agreement or as part of an administrative proceeding, under the IDEA from the District of Columbia. As part of the certification, the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall require all attorneys in IDEA cases to disclose any financial, corporate, legal, memberships on boards of directors, or other relationships with any special education diagnostic services, schools, or other special education service providers to which the attorneys have referred any clients as part of this certification. The Chief Financial Officer shall prepare and submit quarterly reports to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate on the certification of and the amount paid by the government of the District of Columbia, including the District of Columbia Public Schools, to attorneys in cases brought under IDEA. The Inspector General of the District of Columbia may conduct investigations to determine the accuracy of the certifications.

SEC. 114. The amount appropriated by this Act may be increased by no more than $15,000,000 from funds identified in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report as the District's fiscal year 2005 unexpended general fund surplus. The District may obligate and expend these amounts only in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall certify that the use of any such amounts is not anticipated to have a negative impact on the District's long-term financial, fiscal, and economic vitality.

(2) The District of Columbia may only use these funds for the following expenditures:

- (A) One-time expenditures;
- (B) To avoid deficit spending;
- (C) Debt Reduction;
- (D) Program needs; or
- (E) To avoid revenue shortfalls.

(3) The amounts shall be obligated and expended in accordance with laws enacted by the Council in support of each such obligation or expenditure.

(4) The amounts may not be used to fund the agencies of the District of Columbia government under court ordered receivership.

(5) The amounts may be obligated and expended only if the Mayor notifies the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate in writing 30 days in advance of any obligation or expenditure.

SEC. 115. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Mayor, in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia, may expend funds that are not reflected in the amounts appropriated in this Act to implement activities designed to improve the collection of taxes and revenue within the District: provided, That such increase in collections are estimated to be at least twice the increase in expenditure necessary to implement the activity: provided further, That such activity shall be approved by the Council, contingent upon the following:

(1) No written notice of disapproval being filed with the Secretary to the Council within 14 calendar days of the delivery of a request to the Council by the Secretary to the Council from the Mayor, and no oral notice of disapproval being given during a meeting of the Council during such 14-calendar day period; absent such disapproval, the request shall be deemed to be approved; and

(2) Should notice of disapproval be given during such initial 14-calendar day period, the Council may approve or disapprove the request by resolution within 30 calendar days of the initial receipt of the request from the Mayor, or such request shall be deemed to be approved: provided further, That such increases shall comply with all reserve requirements contained in the District of Columbia Home Rule Act.

SEC. 116. (a) The amount appropriated by this Act as Other Type Funds may be increased by no more 25% to account for an unanticipated growth in revenue collections.

(b) Conditions on Use - The District of Columbia may obligate or expend these amounts only in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) Certification by the Chief Financial Officer - The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall certify that anticipated revenue collections support an increase in the Other Type authority in the amount requested.

(2) No amount may be obligated or expended pursuant to subsection (a) until:

(A) The Chief Financial Officer submits to the Council a report setting forth detailed information regarding the unanticipated revenue; and

(B) The Council has reviewed and approved the obligation and expenditure of the unanticipated revenue.

(3) The Council shall be deemed to have reviewed and approved the obligation and expenditure of the unexpected revenue if:

(A) No written notice of disapproval is filed with the Secretary to the Council within 14 calendar days of the receipt of the report from the Chief Financial Officer under subparagraph (2)(A); or

(B) If a notice of disapproval is filed pursuant to subparagraph 3(A), the Council does not by resolution disapprove the obligation or expenditure of the unexpected revenue within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the report from the Chief Financial Officer under paragraph (2)(A).

(c) No amount may be obligated or expended from the general fund or other funds of the District of Columbia government in anticipation of the approval or receipt of unexpected revenue.

(d) The Chief Financial Officer may adjust the budget to reflect Other type funds approved under subsection (b)(2).

(e) Notice Requirement - The unexpected revenue may be obligated or expended only if the Mayor notifies the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate in writing 30 days in advance of any obligation or expenditure.

(f) The Chief Financial Officer shall prepare a quarterly report setting forth detailed information regarding all unexpected revenue subject to this section. Each such report shall be submitted to the Council and to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate not later than 15 days after the end of the quarter covered by the report.

SEC. 117. The amount appropriated by this Act as local funds may be increased by no more than 6% to account for an unanticipated growth in revenue collections. The District may obligate and expend these amounts only in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall certify the
